Letter From The President Normalcy vs Normality

My Take On COVID-19

Normalcy vs Normality... That IS the question. I don't remember using or hearing these two words much prior to March, 2020. But today, for everyone on the planet, or at least for those of us in CNY, neither apply and both are commonplace. Let's try to at least get this part right. "Nor•mal•i•ty", /nôr'malədē/, noun, 1. the condition of being normal; the state of being usual, typical, or expected. Using "NORMALITY" is correct. Using "NORMALCY" is frowned upon. So please cringe with me...

Assuredly, someday, somehow, NORMALITY will return.

Now to the 2020-21 season; what's to be expected at Song and Labrador? As we go to print, we fully expect to resume "near" routine operations this winter. First and foremost, the safety of our patrons and staff are always our #1 priority. While NYS has yet to formalize guidelines for ski centers in NY, it is clear that CDC and NYS guidelines will be compulsory. If for any reason, NYS requires Song or Labrador to cease operations, suitable arrangements will be made.

At this point in the pandemic, we all should be acutely aware of what's expected while in public. In fact we should all be experts. Generally, capacities may be reduced and operating schedules may change on short notice. While indoors; masks, social distancing, deep cleaning, hand washing, disinfection, etc. are all old hat. For the outdoors, skiing and snowboarding protocol are still in their formative stages. But one can expect: 1. Minimum six feet spacing while in lift lines, 2. Unrelated parties will ride lifts as singles only, 3. Family members may ride lifts together, 4. Private lessons, scheduled in advance, may be recommended, 5. Additional and expanded outdoor seating, etc., etc., etc. Bottom line... Just enjoy our beautiful CNY winter (lake effect and all) OUTDOORS skiing and snowboarding. There's really nothing else to do!

Stay safe, stay healthy, and certainly don't miss the October 7th "Early Bird" deadline. I sincerely look forward to seeing you all "when the snow flies".

- Peter Harris, Pres.
